

To whom it may concern:

RegIQ Solutions is a SaaS start-up company dedicated to changing the way medical devices are brought through the regulatory process by introducing MAGELLAN, the industry's first Medical Device Compliance Platform.

DOMINION delivered a comprehensive package of creative services in a condensed time frame that was well executed.

DOMINION's management team was accessible through the entire process. They were transparent, never missed a deadline and – most importantly – respected our budget.

Very best,
